

CONTENTS

CLASS 1:

1. Introduction
1. Understanding children, and relevant to all relationships
2. What if everything is fine?
3. The world is suffering from misunderstanding, become a true understander
4. Awareness brings change; even to those who have not mastered the tools
5. Getting into someone else's think box, there is no right or wrong
6. Learning people's languages
7. Nature versus nurture
8. What's a personality?
9. The four types in each of us; it's all about dominance

CLASS 2:

1. The four types are four parts of ourselves, not four people.
2. More on the four types
3. 12 color combos
4. The importance of treating each child based on his/her nature
5. Don't generalize
6. What criticism does when it's about something natural

CLASS 3:

1. No such thing as good or bad personalities
2. Each personality has his/her part in the big picture
3. Grouping the personalities and comparing them
4. The important distinction: yellow blue & red versus UV
5. Extremism, insecurity, difficulty collaborating
6. Rubber band analogy
7. The four materials, rubber, plastic, wood, and glass
8. Diamond analogy
9. Who feels (and is) the most misunderstood
10. The color Ultraviolet

CLASS 4:

1. Review on all four types, & distinction of three versus one
2. Three different kinds of ultraviolet
3. Who's most dependent on their situation
4. More on nurture versus nature
5. Emotions trump logic
6. What matters is how he/she "feels" about situation

7. Understanding is the starting point for getting it right
8. Everyone deserves to be treated correctly but for some it's crucial
9. Fighting and tolerating are both wrong
10. The double benefits of getting it right

CLASS 5:

1. The invisible UV
2. Three kinds of invisibles, and the best of them all is the comfortable one
3. A comfy UV can actually be better off than anyone else
4. Ultra-vulnerable
5. Beginning of the Do's and don'ts (Don't oppose, don't blame)

CLASS 6:

1. Some Q&A relevant to Don't's
2. The rest of the Don'ts of part one
3. These are not gimmicks; rather correct communication

CLASS 7:

1. Living by these rules is not artificial relationship
2. All the do's of part 1
3. Comments on book "Stop walking on eggshells"

CLASS 8:

1. All about boundaries and their importance in a relationship
2. Protecting your own boundaries; not allowing yourself to be controlled

CLASS 9:

1. BIFF, how to answer, and when NOT to answer
2. Don't be crutch and become responsible for someone's problems
3. More on not being controlled at all
4. Don't tolerate intolerable behavior
5. Identifying true intolerable behavior
6. Adding consequences when necessary
7. Always following through with boundaries and consequences
8. Enforcing all these rules without violating the proper treatment of part 1

CLASS 10:

1. Q&A
2. Labels, diagnosis's and meds
3. Yidishkeit issues
4. Closing remarks

P: 718.841.6557 • HOTLINE: 718.841.8400
E: rabbishimongruen@lehair.org

MP3

UNDERSTANDING OUR CHILDREN

THE WOMEN'S TELECONFERENCE

ENGLISH

UNDERSTANDING
OUR CHILDREN

BY RABBI SHIMON GRUEN JANUARY - MARCH 2017